

Magictec L.L.C. Limited Warranty

Magictec L.L.C. provides warranty to only the original purchaser of only new Magictec products. This warranty covers defective parts and workmanship for a period of twelve (12) months from the date the Magictec product is delivered to the purchaser. (Established Warranty Period)

Magictec is obligated only to repair or replace the part or workmanship that Magictec determines to have failed as a result of defective part or workmanship. To be eligible for any warranty the purchaser must provide in written form a request for said warranty within the Established Warranty Period.

The warranty does not include any damages caused during shipping. Also warranty does not include any damages due to misuse, lack of proper maintenance, alterations, modifications, negligence, improper electrical power source, accidents or improper mounting.

Magictec will not be liable for any direct or indirect costs other than defective parts and workmanship. Examples – revenue lost due to lost contracts, lost goodwill, lost anticipated business etc.

Normal wearable items are not covered in the warranty, They include – soil probes, soil probe tips, and soil core extractors.

The warranty will be void if Magictec L.L.C. Determines that any neglect, modifications, alterations, abuse, misuse or lack of proper maintenance has taken place. No agent, salesperson, or dealer has any authority to alter or amend this warranty.